

THE SOCIETY

THE many features of the Yukon-Alaskan Exposition, including not only the attractions of the Pacific coast, but also those of a new and most interesting section of the United States, have drawn an unusual number of people from the Eastern States to the Northwest, and have added to the already growing contingent, which for the past few years has left these States to pass the summer months in Northern and Western travel, with yearly visits to the Yellowstone Park and Southern California. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Chewning, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson, who left Richmond in July for the West, returned to the city last week and left Friday afternoon for the Chewning's country place, Mountain View.

The party had a most charming trip. They went direct from Richmond to Colorado Springs, where they spent a week, thence to Yellowstone Park, and after a week spent in enjoying the beauties of Southern California they went on to the exposition.

Leaving Seattle by the Canadian Pacific, they stopped over in Port Williams, going from there to Toronto by boat.

After a visit of several days to Niagara Falls and a stop in Albany, the party came down the Hudson River to New York City and visited Mr. and Mrs. Chewning's son, Walter Chewning, in Newark, N. J. He is to come down to Virginia this week, and will remain with his parents for a fortnight's stay in their country home.

Leave for Motor Trip.

James A. Moncure, who returned from Atlantic City Saturday, will be joined in Richmond tomorrow by Mrs. Moncure, and they will leave on Tuesday night for New York to join Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Forbes, whose motorcar has been sent ahead to New York.

The party will spend about three weeks touring the White Mountains and visiting places of interest in New England before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard Forbes will also be in this party of Richmond people.

Mrs. Waller, Mrs. Moncure's cousin, will remain at the Rockbridge Baths with her children during her absence.

Miss Eugenie Taylor, Mrs. Edgar Lafferty and Mrs. Murray McGuire are in a large party now camping in the White Mountains on Lake Squam. They have had many novel experiences and are altogether delighted with camp life.

Departure Regretted. Mr. and Mrs. Royal E. Cabell, who have been located since their marriage at 210 East Franklin Street, will leave on September 1 for Washington, where Mr. Cabell has been appointed Commissioner of Revenue.

As both Mr. and Mrs. Cabell are popular members of Richmond society, it is a matter of much regret that they will make their home out of this city.

Miss Virginia G. Wallace, of "Hamstead," gave a lovely little party on Wednesday last to her cousins and guests.

The lawn of the old homestead was beautiful, and Miss Wallace's guests romped and played to their heart's content, later going in to dance and dine. The gracious little hostess was assisted in receiving her friends by her mother, Mrs. W. J. Wallace, and her aunt, Mrs. Austin Brockebrough, of this city.

MRS. WILLIAM J. PILLOW, of New Orleans, who before her marriage was Miss Ruth Vance, granddaughter of Senator Zebulon B. Vance, North Carolina, is spending the summer with friends at Black Mountain, N. C.

Her guests were: Bee and Temple Faulkner, Elizabeth, Charlotte and Roger Coaler, Kendall Lipscomb, Juliette Randall, Richard Richardson, Chapman Vance and Anne Harrison.

Mrs. Brockebrough and her children will return to Richmond tomorrow, after a delightful visit of several weeks in her sister's beautiful country home.

Dr. Evans to Speak.

Dr. William E. Evans will speak to the women of their vespers service on the lawn of the Country Club, 512 Fifth Avenue, Chestnut Hill, to-day at 6 o'clock. Special music has been provided for the gathering, and all women are most cordially welcomed. Supper will be served, as usual, for the convenience of those having any other engagement for the evening.

A Virginia Girl Returns From Europe.

The arrival of Miss L. Blanche Thomas at her home in Drewryville, Va., this month, after a two years' tour of Europe, was the occasion of a most enjoyable family reunion and house party at the home of her brother-in-law, R. A. Pope.

She was greeted on her arrival at the station by all the members of her immediate family and a host of friends. The following day she was the guest of honor at a sumptuous dinner. Miss Thomas was graduated in voice from the New England Conservatory, Boston, and for two years has been traveling and studying both in Italy and Paris. She also studied oratorio in London, a pupil of Watkin Mills.

Those from a distance attending the house party were Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hawkins, Hampton, Va.; Mrs. H. C. Smith, Miss Ivey Smith, Miss Eva Potts, Mrs. A. W. Gillette, Emporia, Va.; Miss Alice Bell, Franklin, Va.

Birthday Party.

A most enjoyable party was given to Miss Rosa Krug in her home on Wednesday evening. Games of all kinds were indulged in until a late hour, when the guests passed into the dining-room. Miss Krug's friends called throughout the day to wish her many happy returns of her birthday. She received many pretty presents.

Amongst those present were Miss Grace Rollins, Miss Ruby Smith, Mrs. David Williams, Miss Ruth Sims, Miss Lottie Larnold, Russell Tate, Miss Ethel Fowler, Miss Helen Sore, Curtis Wash, Miss Edith Watkins, Miss Lizzy Krug, Le Roy Miller, Miss Haslins Garrett, Miss Louise Lettwith, Leslie Larnold, Miss Emma Watkins, Miss Rosa Krug, Clarence Lettwith, Miss Lella Krug, Rupert Krug, Miss Grace Watkins, Miss Margaret Sore, Mrs. F. C. Chesterman, Mrs. Lettwith, Mrs. David Krug, Mrs. Barnes, Misses Gertrude and Katie Krug, John Krug and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Krug.

Miss Ryan Returns Home.

Miss Margaret Ryan, who has been visiting in Philadelphia and Baltimore for the past few months, is spending a few weeks with her father, Mr. Ryan, at his home in North Harrison Street, before leaving for an extended Northern trip.

In and Out of Town.
